

Dot VN, Inc. Co-Founder and President, Lee Johnson Honored by the Vietnamese Ministry of Information and Communications and the Prime Minister's Office.

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA – October 31, 2011 Dot VN, Inc., (<http://www.dotvn.com>) (OTC Trading Symbol: DTVI), an Internet and Telecommunications Company and the exclusive online global IDN domain name registrar for the Country of Vietnam (“the Company” or “Dot VN”), announced today that on October 28, 2011, at the Ministry of Information and Communications (the “MIC”) building located at 18 Nguyen Du, Hanoi, Vietnam, Deputy Minister of MIC Nguyen Thanh Hung presented Dr. Lee Johnson, President and Co-Founder of Dot VN and its subsidiary Hi-Tek Multimedia, Inc. (“HI- TEK”), with an award from Prime Minister, Nguyen Tan Dung's Office. Dr. Lee Johnson is the first overseas Vietnamese which the MIC nominated to the Prime Minister for an award in recognition of his outstanding achievements in strengthening and developing the Internet in Vietnam.

Beginning in 2001, Dr. Johnson returned to his native Vietnam to study the development of the domain name system in Vietnam and began a close cooperative relationship with the then, newly formed, Vietnam Internet Network Information Center (“VNNIC”), which was established to create policy and manage the Vietnamese domain name system as well as build a master plan for the adoption of the Vietnamese domain name globally. One of Dr. Johnson's most important contributions was the creation of Decision No. 92 of Ministry of Posts and Telecommunications, which enabled domestic Vietnamese entities, individuals as well as foreign entities to register and use the Vietnamese domain names “.vn”.

During his speech honoring Dr. Johnson, Deputy Minister of the MIC, Nguyen Thanh Hung said: “This award is recognition of the contribution of both HI-TEK and Phuoc Lee Johnson in his personal capacity, to promote Vietnam's Internet in order to keep pace with other developing countries in the region and the world”. He also expressed hope that Dr. Johnson will continue to work closely with VNNIC to promote Vietnam's image, culture and people throughout the world thereby continuing the socio-economic development of the country.

In his acceptance speech, Dr. Johnson vowed that beginning in 2012 and onward into the future, he will redouble his efforts towards the promotion and development of the Vietnamese Domain Name “.vn”. Additionally he will continue to launch new successful programs designed to drive the use and adoption of the Vietnamese native language internationalize domain name (the “IDN”) in order to continue building and preserving the value of Vietnamese culture on the Internet.
