

Dot VN, Inc. Signs Land Lease Agreement to Build Internet Data Center in Ho Chi Minh City, Vietnam

SAN DIEGO – Sept. 15, 2009 – Dot VN, Inc. (<http://www.DotVN.com>) (OTCBB: DTVI), an Internet and Telecommunications Company and the exclusive online global domain name registrar for the Country of Vietnam, announced today that it has signed a 50 year land lease agreement with Saigon Hi-Tech Park for approximately 6,040 square meters (65,014 sq. ft.) in order to build and operate a Tier III Internet data center (IDC). The IDC will serve as the primary Dot VN data center in the southern region of Vietnam as well as offer a redundant backup site for other regions.

Saigon Hi-Tech Park offers easy access to the Tan Son Nhat International Airport, Saigon Harbor and downtown Ho Chi Minh City and features international standard infrastructure. Ho Chi Minh City is Vietnam's largest city and the country's financial center.

Notable tenants of the Saigon Hi-Tech Park include Intel Products Vietnam, which manufactures computer microprocessors and chipsets, and Nidec Corporation of Japan, a manufacturer of stepping motors, optical pick-up and precise servo motors.

“We are very pleased to take this important step to begin the development of our second Internet data center in Vietnam to service government, businesses, financial and educational institutions and healthcare centers,” said Thomas Johnson, CEO of Dot VN, Inc. “This new Tier III IDC will feature cutting edge data center technologies and will help to grow the Dot VN brand name as we offer our customers the latest web services, along with the most advanced resource for data management and storage.”

Vietnam is the second fastest growing economy in the world, with a population of over 86 million people and a literacy rate over 90 percent. The U.S.-based International Data Group (IDG) forecasts that the Vietnamese IT market's spending will reach nearly U.S. $2.2 billion this year and over $3.5 billion in 2013 to become the IT market with the highest growth rate in Southeast Asia.

Forward-Looking Statements:

Statements in this press release may be “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Words such as “anticipate,” “believe,” “estimate,” “expect,” “intend” and similar expressions, as they relate to Dot VN or its management, identify forward-looking statements. These statements are based on current expectations, estimates and projections about Dot VN's business based, in part, on assumptions made by management. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual outcomes and results may, and probably will, differ materially from what is expressed or forecasted in such forward-looking statements due to numerous factors, including those described above and those risks discussed from time to time in Dot VN's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Factors that could materially affect these forward-looking statements and/or predictions include, among other things: (i) our limited operating history; (ii) our ability to pay down existing debt; (iii) unforeseen costs and expenses; (iv) potential litigation with our shareholders, creditors and/or former or current investors; (v) Dot VN's ability to comply with federal, state and local government regulations in the US and foreign countries; (vi) Dot VN's ability to maintain current agreements with the government of Vietnam and enter into additional agreements with the government of Vietnam; and (vii) other factors over which we have little or no control. In addition, such statements could be affected by risks and uncertainties related to product demand, market and customer acceptance, competition, pricing and development difficulties, as well as general industry and market conditions and growth rates and general economic conditions. Any forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made, and Dot VN does not undertake any obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this release. Information on Dot VN's website does not constitute a part of this release.
