No. Description

99.1 Press Release dated December 28, 2011

Dot VN, Inc.'s Subsidiary, Hi-Tek Multimedia, Inc., receives award from Vietnamese Government for development of Vietnamese Native Language Domain Names.

SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA – December 28, 2011, Dot VN, Inc., (<http://www.dotvn.com>) (OTC Trading Symbol: DTVI), an Internet and Telecommunications Company and the exclusive online global domain name registrar for the Country of Vietnam (“the Company” or “Dot VN”), announced today that the Company’s wholly owned subsidiary Hi-Tek Multimedia, Inc. (“HMI”) received an award from the Vietnam Internet Network Information Center (“VNNIC”) for the successful re-launch and wide spread adoption of the Vietnamese Native Language Domain Names. The award was presented to HMI at the annual year-end conference held by the Ministry of Information and Communications of Vietnam and VNNIC. Pictures of the award are available on our web site at www.dotvn.com.

Since its re-launch on April 28, 2011, Vietnamese Native Language Domain Name registrations have exceeded 550,000 in 8 months. By comparison, standard Vietnamese domain names, which have been available for wide spread registration since 2003 currently number only 253,319.

“We are very pleased with the massive adoption of the Vietnamese Language Domain Name and are focused on developing additional products and services to increase the functionality and use of the native language domain names,” said Dot VN Co-Founder and President, Dr. Lee Johnson. “As we head into 2012, we will look to increase the reach of the Vietnamese Native Language Domain Name and build a robust network of linked websites and pages.”
